

BOARD STANDS PAT ON DANCING BAN AT SCHOOL

University of Mississippi Trustees Also Start War on Fraternity Activity at Oxford.

UNIVERSITY OF MISSISSIPPI, Nov. 4.—The board of trustees of universities and colleges that met here to make investigations concerning the burning of Gov. Russell in effigy by the students, and to hear the requests of the students, finished its work yesterday afternoon. No concessions were made to the students in their requests concerning the dances.

Investigations were made concerning the existence or nonexistence of Sub Rosa fraternities in the university during the last few years. Speeches were made in chapel this morning to the students by Gov. Russell and Senator A. A. Cohn. The students' body and student activities are demoralized. The indications here yesterday were that several hundred students may quietly withdraw from the university during the next few days. The investigations and the action to be taken concerning the actions of part of the student body last week was left up to the faculty.

The following resolutions adopted by the board of trustees while in session here were given out by the governor:

"The board having before it evidence to the effect that there has existed in the last few years Sub Rosa fraternities at the University of Mississippi in violation of law, and that there are now students in the university who have violated this law, and being advised that these students are desirous of severing all connection, if they have not already done so, with these orders, and are ready and willing to surrender any certificate or other evidence of membership with same, and are now joining with the faculty and trustees and officers of the state earnestly and honestly with a view of wholly eradicating these organizations, and who stand ready and willing to further aid in keeping all the rules and regulations of this institution and the laws of the state for the purpose of insuring a greater university."

"Therefore, be it resolved by the board of trustees that a request is hereby made of each and every member of the student body that who is now affiliated or has heretofore been affiliated with any Greek-letter fraternity or any organization which has been prohibited to exist by what is known as the 'Anti-Fraternity Law' of the state of Mississippi, to file the following information with the secretary of the university, to-wit:

1. His name and postoffice address.
2. What organization he is a member of.
3. The date when he joined.
4. How long he has been a member and when he quit, if at all.
5. Answer specifically whether or not he has belonged to or affiliated with any such order during the session of 1920-21. File with the secretary all evidence in possession, and if not in his possession, procure and file with the secretary all information as to when this organization severed its connection with the head organization.
7. If he has in his possession or knows of the existence of any paraphernalia connected with the organization, surrender same or have same surrendered, together with all permits or charters or other evidence of any official character, with the secretary.

"Such information shall be filed with the secretary of the university on or by high noon, Nov. 10, 1922."

"The board of trustees heartily indorse the action of the faculty of the University of Mississippi as set forth in the resolutions looking to the apprehension and punishment of the persons participating in the uprising among the students which occurred on Wednesday night, Oct. 27, and we also desire to approve the report and action of the faculty in meeting out punishment to those already apprehended, and we want to place ourselves on record as standing ready to give them all due encouragement in the apprehending and punishing all others not yet apprehended, and to give them our full co-operation."

"We respectfully urge them to continue this investigation until each and every guilty participant is apprehended and punished."

SCHOOLGIRL WANTS TO BE SNAKE CHARMER

CARLINVILLE, Ill., Nov. 4. (By International News Service.)—Louise Graham is 16 years of age and pretty and well up in her studies at school. But Louise has a penchant for snake charming, and every time a carnival would leave the town simultaneously the girl would forsake her family fireside.

Invariably the girl would find herself stranded in the next town. But she stubbornly announced her intention of repeating her performance until the day she became one of the beautiful women who handle the reptilian monsters.

Authorities took Louise in custody and decided to send her to the training school at Geneva. They have the word of local nose-rouge specialists that snakes haven't been seen there since the days when the Volstead act was merely a discredited rumor.

POPE GIVES AUDIENCE TO SEVERAL AMERICANS

ROME, Nov. 4. (By International News Service.)—Mgr. Patrick A. MacGovern, bishop of Cheverus, was received in long and cordial audience by the pope yesterday. On the preceding day his holiness had granted special audiences to Rev. Sister Maria, provincial superior of the Franciscan sisters of St. Louis, Mo., and Sister Baptista, mother superior of the hospital of St. Joseph, in Milwaukee.

EASTERN OHIO MINERS DEDICATE NEW TEMPLE

BELLAIRE, Nov. 4. (By International News Service.)—Eastern Ohio miners will dedicate their new $200,000 temple here Saturday, Oct. 30. The new structure was erected by the 15,000 members of the organization, all of whom will be idle that day, most of them coming here for the dedication ceremonies. The building contains the largest theater in town. It is situated on a lot at the southeast corner of the city park on ground purchased by business men.

SCHOOL GEOGRAPHIES SAID KAISER WAS "IT"

EDWARDSVILLE, Ill., Nov. 4. (By International News Service.)—The school board here is up in arms. Just as school was opening for the year, it was discovered that geographies in a new batch of text-books declared that the German Empire included Alsace-Lorraine, that the Kaiser is its emperor and is a powerful monarch. There was a lot more along this line, with maps to prove. The investigations and the action to be taken concerning the actions of part of the student body last week was left up to the faculty.

PEREGRINE FALCON APPEARS IN LONDON

LONDON, Nov. 4. (By International News Service.)—A peregrine falcon—an unusual sight in London—visited the neighborhood of St. Paul's cathedral recently and caused one death and universal consternation among the pigeons.

About 50 of these half-time pigeons were wheeling around the dome when the falcon arrived, closed its wings, and swooped down at about 150 miles an hour.

The pigeons dived to cover. A burst of feathers fluttered and danced in the air; one pigeon had been struck and was being carried off.

The peregrine falcon, the corsair of the air, is extremely rare. It usually hunts high and desolate cliffs on lonely parts of the coast.

A hundred years ago, however, it used to haunt the region of St. Paul's.

"PUDDEN"

Cheshire Cheese Tavern, where Dickens and Thackeray were familiar figures, was famous for its pudding.

Old William, the waiter, went his rounds among the immortals crying: "Any gentleman say pudden?"

Customs have changed since the days of Dickens and Thackeray; waiters no longer cry their wares.

But pudding remains as popular as ever—at least at CHILDS, where it reaches perfection.

Rice, tapioca and cornstarch puddings—a trio of delectable desserts.

HUNGARY HUNGERS FOR NEW MONARCH, OUTFIT COMPLETE

BY FRANK E. MASON,
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

BERLIN, Nov. 4.—Who will be the new king of Hungary? Hungary is in the market to buy or rent a reliable king. Thoroughly committed to the plan of re-establishing a monarchy, Hungary has a vacant throne with a good scepter and crown included, in readiness to present some one anxious to engage in the king business who can prove that the blood in his veins is thin and blue.

A high Hungarian official passing through Berlin informs the International News Service that four candidates with the necessary qualifications are being considered by the monarchists. Every effort is being made by the present government, however, to delay the election of a king until Hungary recovers from the effects of the war, and more especially of the peace which has awarded large portions of the country to Rumania, Czechoslovakia and Serbia.

The four candidates are the deposed Emperor Charles, his son, Archduke Franz Joseph, Archduke Joseph of Budapest, and Archduke Albrecht. The Legitimists take the standpoint that Emperor Charles is still the king of Hungary and that his abdication by the manifest of Nov. 13, 1918, is invalid.

Another group of the Legitimists consider that Charles' abdication has put such a strain on his prestige that it would make it impossible for him to rule again. They wish to crown Charles' 8-year-old son, who would rule under a regent until he became of age.

The French influence in Hungary favors the election of the old-line Hapsburgs, and they will be pleased with either the reinstatement of Emperor Charles or the enthronement of his son. This party has committed itself to the assistance of the French plans of a Danube confederacy which will be dominated both politically and economically by French.

The most popular candidate among the people is Archduke Joseph, who speaks Hungarian perfectly and has always taken a great interest in the Magyars. His international policy, however, is pro-Hungary more than peror Charles or the enthronement of his son. This party has committed itself to the assistance of the French plans of a Danube confederacy which will be dominated both politically and economically by French.

A fat chance!

I READ a story.
ABOUT A fellow.
WHO SLIPPED.
ON AN icy hill.
AND STARTED to slide.
AND TRIPPED up.
A FAT lady.
WHO SAT on him.
AND RODE down hill.
TO THE foot.
AND THEN he wheezed.
"MADAM, YOU'LL have.
TO GET off here.
THIS IS as far.
AS I go."
SO WHEN a new clerk.
WHO DIDN'T know.
MY REGULAR smoke.
TRIED TO sell me.
SOME OTHER kind.
OF CIGARETTE.
I REMEMBERED that yarn.
AND TOLD the clerk.
JUST WHERE to get off.
OTHER KINDS will burn.
AND GIVE off smoke.
I'LL ADMIT that much.
BUT THAT'S as far.
AS I'LL go.
THERE'S ONLY one kind.
OF CIGARETTE.
THAT CAN, and will, and does.
REALLY SATISFY.
